

Some of the supported living properties available through Sovereign Housing may look like this:

You could live on your own or in a shared house with a furnished lounge like this:

Some properties may have doors leading to a garden:

Shared properties may have a large lounge area where you can socialise and get to know the other people you live with:

